Giving Back

Everything that Interact stands for is about giving back to others and doing selfless work. The emphasis is on the betterment of the community in order to benefit a wide range of individuals without asking for anything in return.

Boosting Morale

By setting an example and getting involved in Interact and its service projects, you get unexpected benefits. The change you see within yourself and the people around you that you inspire is exceptional.

Being a Good Human Being

Interact pairs with and works in close relation with local Rotary clubs, who perform incredibly selfless service events every year that support the greater good. The Rotary and therefore Interact forever live by their motto, "Service Above Self."
